

Customer Journey Mapping Worksheet

Map the path from awareness through consideration, conversion, and retention to identify opportunities for better marketing and customer experience.

Instructions

Map the customer's experience from first awareness through retention. Focus on what the customer is trying to accomplish, what they see and do, and where friction or unanswered questions may appear.

Customer / Segment

Segment:		Primary Offer:
Customer Need:		Journey Goal:

Journey Map

AWARENESS

Customer question / need: What triggers the customer to look for a solution?

Customer touchpoints: Search, social, referral, ad, word-of-mouth, content

What the customer does: _____

What the business does: _____

Friction / unanswered question: _____

Opportunity to improve: _____

CONSIDERATION

Customer question / need: What information does the customer need before engaging?

Customer touchpoints: Website, reviews, comparison, proof, pricing, FAQs

What the customer does: _____

What the business does: _____

Friction / unanswered question: _____

Opportunity to improve: _____

CONVERSION

Customer question / need: What must happen for the customer to take the desired action?

Customer touchpoints: Form, call, purchase, booking, consultation
What the customer does: _____
What the business does: _____
Friction / unanswered question: _____
Opportunity to improve: _____

RETENTION
Customer question / need: What keeps the customer engaged and creates repeat value?
Customer touchpoints: Onboarding, support, email, reporting, follow-up
What the customer does: _____
What the business does: _____
Friction / unanswered question: _____
Opportunity to improve: _____

Cross-Stage Improvement Priorities

Opportunity	Expected customer benefit	Measurement / KPI